

CR Part 100.5 (iii) (b):

Students who enter a registered New York State high school for the first time in grade eleven in the 2002-2003 school year and thereafter, other than those students who have received home instruction pursuant to 100.10 of this Part in New York State or who have been enrolled in a registered or non-registered public or nonpublic New York State high school, in order to receive a high school diploma must pass the Regents Comprehensive Examination in English, a Regents examination in mathematics, a Regents examination in United States history and government, and a Regents examination in science, or approved alternatives. The principal may exempt a student from the requirement for the Regents examination in global history and geography ordinarily taken and passed before the date of the student's entry.
